

Tennis Seniors Australia Player of the Year for 2010

Glenn Busby

At the Awards Ceremony at the recent Australian Seniors Championships, Glenn Busby was named as the Tennis Seniors Australia Player of the Year for 2010. Glenn is well known for his outstanding court demeanour, professionalism, sportsmanship and the great credit he brings to Seniors tennis.

His performances in 2010 as a Seniors player were outstanding.

- He won the Australian 50+ men's singles defeating Peter Hampton 6/2, 6/1
- He won the Australian 50+ men's doubles
- He won the Australian 50+ mixed doubles
- He won the Victorian 50+ men's singles defeating Eddie Myers 6/3, 6/0
- He won the ITF World 50+ men's singles defeating Pierre Godfroid 6/2, 6/0
- He was captain of Australia's ITF World 50+ Cup team finishing 2nd.
- He won the European 50+ singles defeating Norbett Henn 6/7, 7/5, 7/5
- He won the Austrian 50+ men's singles defeating Haim OHN 6/2, 6/1
- He won the Croatia 50+ men's singles defeating Marco Armellini 3/6, 6/3, 6/4
- He is currently ranked # 1 in Australian singles rankings
- He is currently ranked # 1 in ITF World singles rankings