

Message from Belinda Klevelaan, Tennis Australia's National Program Manager, to Tennis Seniors Australia regarding the appointment of Bruce OsBorne as a Tennis Seniors Consultant to Tennis Australia – April 2010.

Hi all

I wanted to let you know that Bruce Osborne commenced this week in the area of Tennis Seniors.

This appointment recognises the commitment of Tennis Australia to Tennis Seniors and the importance of this demographic to tennis.

The scope of this role will include:

- Build and enhance partnership with Tennis Seniors Australia
  - Support implementation of MOU's with Member Associations
  - Support and administration of Australian representative teams at World Championship level (competitive play) and assist with introduction of the ITF ipin
  - Develop and promote a social tennis platform for seniors (social play)
  - Assist in the recruitment of seniors as officials and volunteers in tennis

Many will be aware of Bruce as a successful Tennis Seniors player, who recently captained the winning Australian team at the World Championships in Mexico in April this year. In addition to his tennis skills, Bruce joins us well credentialed as a past Head of School and Deputy Principal, but more importantly with an in depth knowledge of Tennis Seniors. He is the current Tennis Manager of Tennis Seniors Australia, and will continue that role independently to this Tennis Australia appointment.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Paul Kattestaart for all his efforts in the area of Tennis Seniors, and wish him the best in his ongoing role with My Tennis.

Moving forward, please direct all Tennis Australia related Tennis Seniors queries to Bruce (Bosborne@tennis.com.au or direct phone 03 9914 4050) or do not hesitate to contact me if required.

Kind regards,

Belinda Kleverlaan
