

Glen Busby and Tom Hancy honoured at Newcombe Awards

At a glittering event at the Crown Paladium Entertainment complex in Melbourne last night, Glen Busby and Tom Hancy were honoured for their respective contributions to tennis over the past twelve months.

Glen Busby and Tom Hancy

Glen received the Newcombe Award for the “Most outstanding 35+ Senior”. He is currently the number 1 world ranked player in the 55+ age bracket and has had a string of successes in Europe and Australia this year. He was also captain of the Austria Cup team which won in the World Titles in New Zealand earlier in the year.

Tom was recognized for his 43 years of unbroken service in various capacities, predominantly to Ringwood and Park Orchards clubs where he is a life member, and of course also to Tennis Seniors Australia for the magnificent contribution he has made as Secretary over the past 3 years. Tom received the Newcombe "Volunteer Achievement Award"

Tennis Seniors Australia salutes these stalwarts of our game, and congratulates them on their achievements.

Reg Trevaskis
6 December 2012