Tennis Queensland Award: Most Outstanding 30+ Master for 2023 Ross Orford

Congratulations to Ross Orford for winning the Tennis Queensland Most Outstanding 30+ Master Award at the recent 2023 Queensland Tennis Awards.

Following his retirement from coaching, Ross has had an outstanding 2023, having won 14 Championships this year alone (7 singles and 7 doubles). He is currently ranked No.4 in the world for singles, No.15 in the world for Men's doubles and No. 6 in the world for mixed doubles in the 70+ age category.

In Australia, Ross is ranked No. 2 for Men's singles and No.2 for Men's doubles in the 70+ Masters Category. Ross was also selected for the Australian 70's ITF World Team Championships in Mallorca 2023.
